CARRIAGE HOUSE CULTURAL EVENTS

The Patricia Kuran Cultural Arts Center was originally a 19th century Carriage House, and is all that remains of the historic Homestead Hotel which formerly stood on the grounds at Borough Hall. Renovated in 1998 as a home for the arts, this venue lends an air of charm to our performance and fine arts offerings.

PERFORMANCE SERIES

In it's 8th year, The Cultural Arts Committee hosts a variety of musical acts each spring and fall. Shows begin at 7 p.m., suggested donation of $15 or $10 for senior citizens & students.

POETRY SERIES

In it's 19th year, this renowned series draws established poets from around the country to its "Third Thursday" performances. No performance is scheduled for August or December. The show opens at 8 p.m. and is free of charge.
